This Privacy Notice explains how Rerouted Results Ltd. collects, uses, stores, shares and protects personal data.

Rerouted Results Ltd. is a market research and market intelligence company. We collect research data, including survey responses and farmer-level insights, to produce reports, datasets and market intelligence for clients in the agriculture, food, rural business and related sectors.

This Privacy Notice applies to research participants, clients, suppliers, contractors, job applicants and other people whose personal data we process.

We process personal data in line with the EU General Data Protection Regulation, the Data Protection Act 2018, and guidance from the Irish Data Protection Commission.

1. Who we are

Rerouted Results Ltd. is the data controller for the personal data described in this Privacy Notice, unless we explain otherwise. This means we decide why and how personal data is collected and used.

6. Consent for identifiable farmer-level data

Rerouted Results Ltd. may sell, license or provide identifiable farmer-level data to clients only where the farmer has given consent for this use.

Identifiable farmer-level data may include name, contact details, farm or business details, location, survey responses, farm profile information, technology usage or purchasing interest, and the consent record.

Where consent is requested, we will explain what data will be shared, who it may be shared with or the type of client it may be shared with, why it is being shared, whether the client may contact the farmer, and how consent can be withdrawn.

Participants can withdraw consent by contacting info@reroutedresults.com. Withdrawing consent will not affect processing that happened before consent was withdrawn.

7. Aggregated and anonymised data

Rerouted Results Ltd. may produce and sell aggregated or anonymised data, reports and insights. This may include regional market trends, farm technology adoption rates, purchasing intentions, attitudes to products, services or suppliers, sector-level analysis, farm type or enterprise-level comparisons, and market intelligence reports.

Where data is fully anonymised, individuals are no longer identifiable. We will take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of individuals being identified from aggregated or anonymised outputs.

8. GPS location data

Rerouted Results Ltd. collects GPS location data through Jotform as part of survey collection.

We use GPS data to verify that field surveys were completed at the correct location, support fieldwork quality control, prevent fraudulent or inaccurate survey submissions, confirm survey completion records, and assist with operational management and audit checks.

GPS data is not used for unrelated purposes unless this has been clearly explained and a valid lawful basis applies.

9. Prize draws

Farmers and other eligible participants may be entered into a prize draw after completing a survey.

We may use personal data to enter participants into the draw, contact the winner, verify eligibility, arrange delivery or collection of the prize, and keep records of the draw for audit, legal or compliance purposes.

Prize draw data will only be kept for as long as needed for the draw, related administration, legal requirements or dispute handling.

10. Direct marketing

We may contact clients, prospective clients or business contacts about Rerouted Results Ltd. services where legally permitted.

You can opt out of marketing at any time by contacting info@reroutedresults.com.

We will not sell farmer contact details for third-party marketing unless this has been clearly explained and the farmer has consented.

11. Who we share personal data with

We may share personal data with clients who buy, license or receive research outputs, datasets or market intelligence; clients receiving identifiable farmer-level data where the farmer has consented; Jotform and other survey software providers; IT, cloud storage and data hosting providers; payment, payroll or accounting providers; field surveyors and contractors working on our behalf; professional advisers; public authorities where required by law; and potential buyers, investors or advisers in the event of a business sale, restructuring, funding process or merger.

Where a third party processes personal data on our behalf, we require appropriate data protection terms.

12. International transfers

Where possible, we store and process personal data in Ireland, the EU or the EEA.

If personal data is transferred outside the EU or EEA, we will ensure that a lawful transfer mechanism is in place, such as an EU adequacy decision, Standard Contractual Clauses, contractual, technical and organisational safeguards, or another lawful GDPR transfer mechanism.

13. Security

We use appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data. These may include password-protected systems, access controls, limiting access to staff and contractors who need the data, secure survey software, secure file storage, staff and surveyor training, data processing agreements with relevant providers, procedures for handling suspected data breaches, and internal review of data sharing and consent records.

If a personal data breach occurs, we will assess the risk and notify the Data Protection Commission and affected individuals where required by law.

14. How long we keep personal data

We keep personal data until consent is withdrawn, the data is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was collected, or we are legally required to keep it for longer.

Data type	Retention period
Identifiable research participant data	Until consent is withdrawn or the data is no longer needed for the purpose collected
Identifiable farmer-level data shared with consent	Until consent is withdrawn or the data is no longer needed for the purpose collected, subject to lawful retention needs
Aggregated or anonymised research data	May be retained indefinitely where individuals are no longer

	identifiable
GPS data linked to survey records	Until no longer needed for survey verification, quality control, audit or legal purposes
Prize draw records	Until the prize draw and any related administration, audit or dispute period is complete
Client and supplier records	For as long as needed for the business relationship, legal, tax, accounting or contract purposes
Financial and tax records	As required by Irish tax, accounting and company law
Job applicant records	3 years
Do-not-contact records	As long as needed to ensure we do not contact the person again

15. Your data protection rights

Depending on the circumstances, you may have the right to:

- Access a copy of your personal data.
- Correct inaccurate or incomplete personal data.
- Request deletion of your personal data.
- Restrict how we use your personal data.
- Object to processing based on legitimate interests.
- Object to direct marketing.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.
- Request data portability.
- Lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission.

To exercise your rights, contact info@reroutedresults.com. We may need to verify your identity before responding to a request.

16. Withdrawal of consent

Where we rely on consent, you can withdraw consent at any time by contacting info@reroutedresults.com. This may include withdrawal of consent for:

- Use of identifiable farmer-level data.
- Sharing identifiable data with clients.
- Entry into certain research panels.
- Certain forms of follow-up contact.
- Certain forms of marketing.

Withdrawal of consent will not affect processing that took place before consent was withdrawn.

17. Special category data

We do not normally collect special category data, such as health information, political opinions, religious beliefs, trade union membership, biometric data or information about racial or ethnic origin.

If we need to collect special category data for a specific project, we will explain this clearly and only process it where we have a valid lawful basis and a valid special category condition under GDPR.

18. Automated decision-making

We do not use personal data to make solely automated decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects on individuals.

We may analyse survey data to identify trends, categories, profiles or market segments, but this is for research and market intelligence purposes.

19. Complaints

You can contact us first at info@reroutedresults.com.

You also have the right to complain to the Irish Data Protection Commission: Data Protection Commission, 21 Fitzwilliam Square South, Dublin 2, D02 RD28, Ireland. Website: dataprotection.ie.

20. Changes to this Privacy Notice

We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time.

The latest version will apply from the effective date shown at the top of the notice. Where changes are significant, we will take reasonable steps to bring them to the attention of affected individuals.
